

How did he get here?

When I was young, I was very interested in what I was doing. I was always looking for ways to improve myself. I was always looking for ways to improve myself. I was always looking for ways to improve myself.

I was always looking for ways to improve myself. I was always looking for ways to improve myself. I was always looking for ways to improve myself. I was always looking for ways to improve myself.

I was always looking for ways to improve myself. I was always looking for ways to improve myself. I was always looking for ways to improve myself. I was always looking for ways to improve myself.

What would he say to others interested in a career in care?

When I was young, I was very interested in what I was doing. I was always looking for ways to improve myself. I was always looking for ways to improve myself. I was always looking for ways to improve myself.

The key thing is to treat each challenge as a learning opportunity, and to broaden your skills whenever you get the chance. There's always more to learn!

www.skillsforcare.org.uk/thinkcarecareers